Sealed Orders.

Two files S and A 737

03-06 are herewith submitted for perusal.

One has been recorded in July 04 bearing Serial Nos. 142 and the other in Dec. 04, bearing Serial Nos. 158.

Though the subjects of both these collections are entirely different yet they have been recorded with the same file number, and the same serial nos. appear in two different collections.

Hence difficulty arises in restoring the files and complying with the requisitions that are to come hereafter for these very files.

I quite agree,

I see that both the files bear the same file No (but issue Nos in the collections). Under the circumstances the case workers who have noted the file No on the note form & the issue clerk should be better able to explain the discrepancy.

How is it you have passed the file No 73 of 03 (the 2nd file now) the case was given to a previous receipt. Please explain

Sir,

(1) SdA. 73 of 03 - Sl: No 168 re-condonation of the break in the service of Md Yakub.

(2) SdA. 73 of 03 - Sl: No 172 re-the grant of 3 months' leave to D. Krishna Rao Jr Examiner, Comptroller's office now 23/5/05

No 1 was dealt with in SdA. Section No 2 in GL: Finance Section

The order issued in No 2 should have been numbered as GL: Finance. 73 of 03 instead of SdA. 73 of 03 by the Despatcher.

The Despatcher has evidently committed the mistake and I

Sub Section -

The file marked "2" belongs to Genl Fin Section & is dealt with in that Section only. But now it is clear how Raghavarao of Orissa, (whose death has not by mistake given rise file no 73 of SdA. Hence Records should not make

Now I beg to suggest the mistake may be corrected & substituting E.F. for "SdA" in the file cover.

Further it being only a few days after the introduction of the new system the mistake has occurred.
